The Year 6 Learner

Approach

In English lessons, children are taught speaking, listening, reading and writing skills through studying a variety of styles of writing (genres). Teachers follow the Teaching Sequence for Writing, which means that children will firstly be taught to read and understand the text, then practise the skills of the style of writing (including grammar) and apply into their own writing.

The Primary National Curriculum statements will be taught through the modules below.

Y6 English Coverage

The Year 6 English curriculum consists of the following modules.

Poetry Modules

- Poetry (Vocabulary Building)
  The children explore vocabulary and figurative language in order to write a series of metaphorical poems.
  Key poets your children will encounter are:
  Fog by Carl Sandberg
  Two Sunflowers Move in a Yellow Room by William Blake
  The Furniture Game by Sandy Brownjohn
  What You Are by Roger McGough
  Kenning Cats by Sandy Brownjohn
  In Just by EE Cummings

- Structure Monologues
  The children read and respond to monologues from a range of Shakespearian texts.
  Key texts your children will encounter are:
  Macbeth
  Hamlet
  Romeo and Juliet

- Take One Poet
  The children will research and respond to a particular poet’s work. They will recite familiar poems by heart.
  The poet your children will learn about is:
  Lewis Carroll

Non Fiction Text Type Modules

- Explanation
  The children will report and present their findings from scientific enquiries.
• Research & Note Taking
The children will learn how to undertake effective research and how to take concise notes.

• Report
The children will use their research on a South American country to write a non-chronological report as part of a presentation on a nonfiction subject. They will choose the appropriate style and form of writing to suit the purpose and audience.

• Recounts
The children will write in role, adapting distinctive voices. They will compose a biographical account of a historical character.

• Persuasion
The children will construct an argument based on our study of conflicts during the Tudor and Stuart periods in history. They will present their points of view to the class.

• Discussion and Debating Skills
The children will debate an issue based on our history topic, followed by a write-up in which they will present and evaluate the opinions of differing viewpoints.

Narrative Modules

• Narrative Genres
The children will read classic detective stories and learn about the techniques used by authors of mystery novels. They will write a class detective story which they will then turn into a graphic novel-style storyboard.

  - Key authors your children will encounter are: Whodunnit? Detective Stories Chosen by Philip Pullman
  - Authors include: Arthur Conan Doyle
  - Dashiell Hammett
  - Agatha Christie
  - Erich Kastner
  - Dorothy L. Sayers

• Settings, Character, Atmosphere
This unit is linked to our History 'Conflicts’ topic. The children will study ‘War Horse’ – the book and film – and will write autobiographical stories, each developing a key narrative technique.

  - Key author your children will encounter is: Michael Morpurgo

• Take One Book (Extended Book Study)
The children will make a study of one of Shakespeare’s plays. They will lead the whole school project based on the play and will perform in an end of year production.

Curriculum Content

Speaking and Listening
Children will be taught to discuss their learning and to develop speaking skills. They will become more familiar with and confident in, using language in a variety of situations, for a range of audiences and purposes. They will, for example

- Develop their understanding of a subject through discussions, learning to give their opinions and listen to other viewpoints.
- Speak clearly and in different ways for drama, formal presentations and debate.
They will prepare work orally, through drama and role play, discussing, rehearsing and recording their ideas.

Reading
This part of the curriculum is broken down into ‘word reading’ and ‘comprehension’.

Word reading will not be directly taught, except where individuals need support. Instead, children will be encouraged to work out unfamiliar words that they meet. They should use their knowledge of word roots and word families to help them to understand new words. Children will be taught key comprehension skills to enable them to read, understand and enjoy a wide range of books. Year 6 will have the opportunity to read and discuss a wider range of fiction, poetry, plays and non-fiction. They will, for example:

- Identify and discuss themes and conventions across a wide range of writing
- Predict what may happen based on evidence and clues given
- Give responses to texts and recommend books to peers, giving reasons for views and choices
- Use clues from the text to work out characters’ feeling, actions or motives and give evidence to back their conclusions
- Discuss and evaluate how authors use language (including figurative language) and consider the impact on the reader.
- Compare different texts

Writing
Writing is developed through teaching the following:

Spelling: Children should learn to spell new words correctly and have opportunities to practise spelling skills. They will be taught spelling patterns and conventions, and draw on their knowledge of word families and roots to help them spell new words correctly. They will continue to practise and use the words included in Appendix 1 of the National Curriculum for years 5 & 6. Children will be expected to use a dictionary and thesaurus.
Handwriting: Pupils will continue to be taught handwriting in order to increase speed, fluency and legibility.

Composition (structure): This includes vocabulary, grammar and punctuation. To develop their composition skills, the children will be taught to

- Plan, draft, compose, edit and evaluate their writing
- Use a wide variety of punctuation and grammar features with confidence
- Refine their grammar and vocabulary to further develop the effectiveness of their writing
- Use a wider range of techniques to build detail into their writing and ensure it flows smoothly throughout the sections of a piece.
- Build on their understanding of the differences between Standard and non-Standard English, and will also focus on how to achieve different levels of formality in their spoken and written language.
- Adapt writing for a range of purposes and audiences as part of their work across the curriculum. In year 6 this will include (cross curricular example, schools to insert their own)

Grammar will be taught throughout the writing process and teachers will follow the terms and concepts of Appendix 2 of the National Curriculum.
