

I can build cohesion within paragraphs using adverbs and conjunctions.

Answers to pages 25 – 28

As a consequence of the day's events, Amber's head was simply buzzing with thoughts.

Needless to say, she was very excited about the magic she had performed earlier.

Furthermore, she was also very worried about what Miss Vile was planning to do.

So that she could practise her magic, she went up to her bedroom.

However, she was not successful with her attempts at making herself invisible.

As a result of her failed attempts, she decided to give up.

Despite this, she still made plans to return to school that evening.

Clearly, it was going to be a perilous task.

Nevertheless, she was determined to eavesdrop on the staff meeting.