

Good morning Year 3 and welcome to Wednesday. We are very much looking forward to seeing you this morning in our small group meetings.

Have a good look through today's tasks and get yourself set up and ready to learn. Take breaks just like you would at school and remember to stay active.

Today's picture is from a book called The Boy, the Mole, the Fox and the Horse by Charlie Mackesy. It is full of incredible drawings and messages. We like this picture very much. Have a think today - what difference can you make? Can you find a way to help somebody at home without them asking?

Have a happy day!

Maths

Today, we are learning more about bar charts and reading data.

We would like you to watch a 17-minute video from The Oak Academy.

Please copy and paste this link into your browser:

<https://classroom.thenational.academy/lessons/reading-and-interpreting-bar-graphs-chhk6c?step=2&activity=video>

During the lesson, the teacher will ask you to pause the video and answer questions. Make sure you have paper and pencil ready.

At the end of the lesson, click NEXT and the worksheet will appear on your screen. There are two slides with questions about bar charts for you to answer. Then work through the final quiz to check you have understood the lesson. Good luck!

TTRockstars

Keep up your excellent work with your times tables. Play your 10 daily games in the Garage. Are you on track to hit 50 games by Friday?

Writing

In English we are learning all about trolls.

Today we would like you to use your imagination and to think of something interesting, something surprising and something amazing about trolls. Adverbs are used at the start of a sentence to make the information engage the reader.

They can be used like this:

Interestingly, a few trolls are extremely good at singing.

Surprisingly, some trolls have a vegetarian diet.

Amazingly, trolls are very good at swimming.

Did you notice how a comma was placed after each adverb? We would like you to print the English worksheet and write three super sentences each starting with an adverb and revealing fascinating facts about trolls. If you would like to listen to the recording of The Truth About Trolls text again, then copy this link into your browser:

Guided Reading

We would like you read Page 71 of The Worst Witch.
A scanned copy of the text is on the Year 3 WFH page. Read the description of the gloomy forest where Mildred is lost.

Close your eyes and imagine what it looks like and then use colouring pencils or crayons to draw a picture of the dark, spooky forest. You might like to draw Mildred in the forest too.

Spelling

Here are your spellings to learn this week.

Try using the look, say, cover, write, check technique.

reaching

The whispering wind was blowing through the forest.

Reaching inside my bag, I found my flying kite.

The running dog was hiding under the blanket.

The girl was trying to keep calm as she stepped onto the trembling bridge.

Spotting the delicious cake on the shelf, I just couldn't help staring.
