

Design Your Own Mars Rover

Mars rovers have a number of features that help them send information back to scientists on Earth. These include computers to process information, wheels to help them travel across the surface of the planet and cameras to capture images. Design your own rover in the boxes below. Label your drawing with the different features it would have.

What I need to make my Mars rover:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Picture of my Mars rover: